

Distinguished Alumni

Addy Colopy

" I really felt like St. Bernadette School was my second home. I enjoyed how everyone there made me feel like I was part of a huge family."

Addy is currently in her third year at Ohio State University, studying Animal Science, with a specialization in Veterinary Technology. She is currently working as a bank teller and kennel tech.